Module Name: Data Protection and Governance
Module Code	w.BA.XX.2DPG.XX
Module Description	Data is ubiquitous in today's knowledge and information society. It is referred to as the oil of the 21st century. Processing large data sets, however, poses great challenges. This module addresses these challenges. The main aspects of dealing with data are considered from different perspectives, taking into account various disciplines, roles, and functions. The focus lies on the legal aspects of data privacy (protection of personal data) and information governance. The legal part amounts to 60-70%.
