Module Name: Liability and Insurance Law
Module Code	w.BA.XX.2HpfVR.XX
Module Description	The focus of this module is on tort law. Students deal in depth with the requirements and consequences of liability. In addition to non-contractual liability, the most important causal liabilities, the liability arising from breach of contract, and the liability of motor vehicle owners are dealt with in class. Students gain an insight into the legal remedies available to social and private insurers. New developments in case law are taken into account and discussed in class.
