

Valid for 2023.FS

Module Code	w.BA.XX.3SteurNP-BL.XX
Module Description	Students will gain an overview of the system of Swiss tax law and its legal basis. They will recognize the related economic factors and effects of the taxation of natural persons and will be able to derive principles of the taxation system from this. Students will be able to distinguish between different types of taxation as well as the various taxable facts and legal consequences. They will transfer these taxation principles to concrete situations and analyze the tax burden.
